City Bowling Journey Closes Tonight

The 4th Annual City Bowling tournament will come to a close tonight when 10 doubles teams and 26 singles take to the lanes the first night starting at 7:30 p. m. The main events finished last Sunday with Liberty Five coming out top as city champions.

Last years singles and All-around champion, Frankie Davco, will defend his title this evening on the 30 squad. Davco and his partner, C. Shestok, have already posted 207 actual score to put them in lead for the doubles championship.

Due to the large entry in this year's tournament it was necessary to extend the tournament an extra day, so the bowlers scheduled to play tonight are urged to check the bowling schedule and report at 15 minutes before time to start, as follows:

- 5 p. m.
 Davis and F. Mahoney, J. J. Smith and W. W. W. Ruch, C. Shestok and C. Kugel, F. Strang and T. J. C. Thie and R. Stokes, doubles; Lake and S. Brown, singles.

Rhode Island Selected For Tourney

NEW YORK (UP)—Selection of which Frank Krane's high-scoring Rhode Island basketball team, competing today for the 11th annual National Invitational tournament at Madison Square Garden, March 14-20.

The Rams wound up their regular season's schedule this week with record of 18 victories and two defeats.

Meanwhile, students from City College of New York, rival because it team had been passed up by tournament selectors after upsetting top-ranking New York University, 49 to 44, Thursday night.

Under the tournament committee with telegrams and letters protest.

Announcement of Rhode Island's selection for the eighth time in the tournament was made to C.C.N.Y. followers who felt Krane's strong finish and their own 15 triumphs in 19 games had have rated them a better chance.

The year's will be their third appearance in the invitational meet in the past six years. The Rams were tournament entries 1941, 1942, and last year when they lost to DePaul in the semi-finals.

Other teams entered in the invitational meet this year include Kentucky, Bowling Green, Syracuse, St. John's, West Virginia, Illinois and Arizona. Pairings for the first round will be made today.

Boys' Club Juniors Win Over Hamrocks, 41-23

The Bethlehem Boys Club Junior team clicked for its 17th win in 22 starts as it avenged a one-point score defeat last season by the Shamrocks in an individual contest, 41-23, on the Boys Club court. Both are members of the City Junior League.

The Juniors started fast and built leads of 12-5 at the end of the first period and 23-9 by intermission. The final two periods were battled through practically evenly with the Boys Club gamming 16 points in the Shamrocks 14 points.

All Tied Up In A Knot Flirting With A Fall

Even the referee looks as though he was going to take a hand in the melee on the mat but he isn't. He's trying to spot when the shoulders touch the mat for a pin and which they did. Joseph Calby, Mercersburg Academy, is in the top position applying a half Nelson and crotch hold with which he pinned James Kendall, Shady Side Academy of Pittsburgh. The bout was one of the many crowded with action in the preliminary round of the Prep School wrestling tournament in Grace Hall at Lehigh last night. The bouts were resumed today with a session this afternoon and the finals tonight.

"A Brilliant Field" For Turf Classic

Nominations For Kentucky Derby List Last Year's Outstanding Two-Year-Olds

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The owners of 149 well bred colts, fillies and geldings cast hopeful eyes today toward the 72nd running of the Kentucky Derby, as Col. Matt J. Winn announced the list of nominations for the May 2 turf classic at Churchill Downs.

The list included virtually every star from last year's crop of the two-year-olds, each owner hoping for a crack at that $100,000 added money and the gold trophy, Colonel Winn, Downs president, called it "a brilliant field."

High among the names were those nominated by Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Maine Chance farm. They include such stars as knockdown, winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby, Star Pilot, and last year's ranking two-year-old, Lord Howsell and Colony Boy.

Among the other nominations were such performers as Dixiana's Epy Song, Fred Wescor, Al Hammett, Parak, High Shine, Hal Piter, Headley's Pellicle, C. J. Sebastian's Galla Danton, Bobanet, stable's Marine Victory, John March's Mighty Victory, Louise Donovan's Fighting Frank, Mrs. Vera S. Bragg's Mist O'Gold and many others.

Warren Wright's Calumet Farm, always a Derby threat, is represented by two other nominations, high level and try Earnest.

MAIN CHANCE ENTERS SIX
 Fred W. Hooper, whose Hook Jr. won last year's Derby, is back this year with four hopefuls and will head field, the New Orleans sportsman, nominated Ave. Main Chance Farm led all subscribers with six, the other two being Perfect Bahram and War Pippin.

Others with four nominations include Greentree Stable, Dave Ferguson, King Ranch, C. V. Whittey. The owners of 11 fillies nominated them for the mile and quarter run for the races, won only once by a member of that sex. Among them were W. L. Brann's Chalandette and Edward Lacker's Alford, both stakes winners last year.

An international flavor was added to the classic with the nomination of British Europe by R. de Sida, Jr. of Havana, Cuba, and Wee Admiral and Windfields, nominated by R. S. McLaughlin and E. P. Taylor, Canadian sportsmen.

Come! (Nim) said this year's Derby first percentile running since 1941, probably would draw out of the biggest crowds ever to see the run for the roses.

"My dream of 1939 of attending once seems a cliché to come true," the 22-year-old turf figure predicted.

State Athletic Board Names New Member

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The State Athletic Commission was at full strength today with the appointment of John W. Montgomery, 47, former Allegheny County sheriff and a Navy veteran, of both ways to the vacancy caused by the death last September 18 of Matty Hunt, of Uniontown.

Montgomery's appointment to the $5,000 a year post was announced at Harrisburg yesterday by Governor Edward Martin.

Other members of the three-man board are Leon Rains, Philadelphia, chairman, and George Jones, Williamsport.

A native of McKeesport, Pa., Montgomery is a bachelor and lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Montgomery of McKeesport.

He was named to the Allegheny County Republican Committee in 1936. He served one term in the State Legislature, but was defeated for reelection in 1940.

Elected city controller in McKeesport in 1941, the new commissioner entered the Navy later the same year and was aboard the Tasker H. Bliss when it was sunk in the Atlantic in 1942 off the coast of Morocco.

After receiving his discharge late in 1944, Montgomery was named in January, 1945 as Allegheny County sheriff to succeed Robert J. Cress, who retired.

In seeking a full term last November, however, Montgomery was defeated by Walter Monaghan, a Democrat.

National Men's Tennis Tourny Resumed Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Tennis resumed today with the resumption of Davis Cup competition. The first national men's tennis championships in five years, held under way at the Severn Hotel, resumed today with a first round match between two of the top eight racket-wielders, including five of the nation's first ten.

Entered in the title chase today were one of the nation's top players, 28-year-old William R. Bundy, and Bill Talbert, the country's No. 2 player and a likely candidate for the Davis Cup team.

Ken Kresge, veteran local official, was elected president of the Bethlehem Board of National Approved Basketball Officials at its meeting in the West Side Republican Club. Kresge succeeds John W. Butler.

Supporting officers to the new president are Robert Taylor, vice-president, and Fred T. Clatter, secretary-treasurer. The latter was re-elected.

Members of the Bethlehem board will join the Lehigh Valley board at the annual March 11, at 8 o'clock in the Germania Hotel, Allentown.

Mercersburg, Title Defender, And Blair Lead Field, In Qualifying For Semi-Finals

Representatives of twelve preparatory schools competed in opening round bouts of the 11th annual wrestling tournament in Grace Hall at Lehigh University last night. A challenge and first round bouts.

The tournament resumed this afternoon with the semifinals and place bouts this evening. Last night's program included 33 bouts scattered through the eight weight divisions with the largest number of bouts in the lighter classes. This was due to the limited number of entrants of some schools while other competed with full teams.

Mercersburg Academy and Blair Academy battled well into the semifinals this afternoon, each qualifying the greatest number of men. In points scored, credited only for falls, Mercersburg, defending champion, was leading the field with 10.

Featuring the entries for the first time in the history of the tournament are two blind schools. Overbrook School for Blind, of Philadelphia and Maryland School for Blind, of Baltimore. Other Baltimore schools represented are Gilman, McDonough, Mt. St. Joseph's and West Nottingham Academy. The remainder of the schools entered are Kiski, Perkiomen Prep, Wyoming Seminary and Shady Side of Pittsburgh.

Prep school Tournament

Sixty-one candidates, representing eleven preparatory schools, wrestled a total of 71 bouts to determine the individual and team championships at the 12th Annual Preparatory School Tournament held at Lehigh University, February 28 and March 1.

Five different schools had representatives win individual championships: Wyoming Seminary taking three first places; Hill School two, Mercersburg, Lawrenceville and Valley Forge each placing one individual champion. The team trophy was won by Wyoming Seminary with a total of 25 points. Mercersburg Academy was second with 17, while the remaining schools were placed in the following order: Hill School 16; Valley Forge, Blair Academy, Lawrenceville School, St. Albans, Perkiomen School, Pennington 1, Baylor School of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Stevens School failed to score a single point.

Interstate Prep League

Wrestling was resumed in 1947 in the Interstate Preparatory School League after an interruption of four years due to the war. The Interstate Preparatory School League is composed of Cranbrook School of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., Nichols School of Buffalo, N. Y., Shady Side Western Reserve Academy of Hudson, O., Nichols School did not compete in wrestling this year.

University School won its first Interstate Wrestling Championship in five years of competition by being undefeated in League competition. University School, coached by S. R. Bobenmyer of Ohio University, had a well-balanced team and won seven out of nine dual meets during the season.

Second Search To Start For Missing Jockey

MIAMI Fla. (UP)—A second extensive search was planned today for jockey Albert Snider and two other companions missing in a small boat off the Florida coast since Friday.
A widespread search for the trio ended at nightfall yesterday without success. With Snider in the 16-foot open boat, were C. H. Trotter, a Miami horse trainer, and Donald Frazier, Toronto, Canada, manufacturer. Snider, Trotter and Frazier, out to do some fishing, presumably were caught in the gale which lashed the Florida Keys during the week-end.

Wyoming Matmen Win Prep Tourney

Capture Team Title With 41 Points And Place Seven Individual Champions

A powerful Wyoming Seminary wrestling team came near scoring a grand slam in the two-day thirteenth annual prep school wrestling tournament concluded in Grace Hall at Lehigh Saturday afternoon.

SEVEN CHAMPIONS
In winning the team title with 41 points, Wyoming captured individual titles in seven of the possible nine weight divisions, losing for this honor only in the 136 pound class in which Hill School's Bruce Mowery captured the crown and Richard Read, Valley Forge, won the title in the heavyweight division.
In winning the team title Wyoming scored more than again as many points as Hill School. The runnerup with 17. Other schools scoring were Blair Academy, 12; Valley Forge, 10; Lawrenceville, 5; Perkiomen, 2, and one point each for Pennington, Wooster and Rutgers Prep.
Bruce Mowery, Hill School's 136 pounder who pinned William Carlisle of Lawrenceville in the finals to win the championship, was voted the outstanding wrestler in the tournament. He was selected by William Sheridan, Lehigh coach, and the referee's who officiated in the tournament. Summaries:

Pennsylvania
Expanding popularity of wrestling as a major high school sport was clearly reflected when six districts came up with champions in the P.I.A.A.'s 12th annual State wrestling Championships at McCaskey High School in Lancaster.

Under the direction of James J. Neely, McCaskey athletic director, the meet was one of the most successful in the P.I.A.A. wrestling history.

Pa. Preps.
Ninety-three candidates representing 16 schools, wrestled a total of 93 bouts to determine the individual and team championships at the 14th annual Academy Preparatory School wrestling tournament, held at Lehigh University on Friday and Saturday, March 4 and 5, 1949. Six schools had representatives win individual championships, The Hill School taking three first places; Stevens Trade taking two with Episcopal, Lawrenceville School, Wyoming Seminary and Mercersburg Academy, each placing one winner.

The Hill School with a total of 33 points won the team trophy. Wyoming Seminary was second with 26 points. Blair and Mercersburg Academy were tied for third with 18 points each.

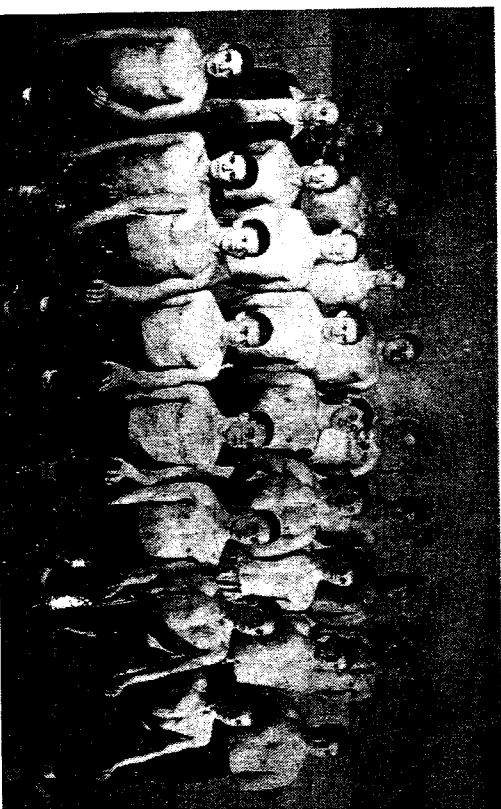

The best wrestler award was won by Carlisle of Lawrenceville School, winner of the 136-pound class.

Long Island
Three Tournaments climaxed the usual annual meet season, one being held for Suffolk Schools, one for the South Shore Schools, and the Long Island Championships. The dual meet season was marked by the visits of six out-of-state teams.

Clinics and rules interpretation meetings were conducted under the direction of the Coaches Association. It is hoped that 1950 will find 10 more schools adding wrestling to their programs.
